

AT&T Ohio Telephone Customers

Extend Your Local Calling Area

In some areas of Ohio customers making telephone calls to local schools, county seats and even neighbors incur hefty toll (long distance) charges. To help avoid these burdensome charges, customers of AT&T Ohio can now participate in the Neighborhood Select, a plan that can reduce the cost of calls to contiguous exchanges, county seats, school districts and family and friends.

What is AT&T Ohio's Neighborhood Select?

This program offers a monthly flat rate for all calls to selected communities. The flat rate replaces the per-minute rates customers currently pay. By utilizing the flat rate, customers can place calls as often as they like, during any time of the day and talk for as long as they want.

How much does it cost?

Customers who choose Neighborhood Select will pay a monthly $2.50 per access line, per added exchange. Customers can choose from a list of available exchanges.

Tips to select a calling plan

- Evaluate your telephone bill. At what time of day do you make the majority of your telephone calls? Are there exchanges that you call more frequently than others? How many calls do you make per month? Do you need a plan that allows unlimited calling at a fixed price? Is a plan that charges by destination and location more appropriate?

- Evaluate your household needs. Do you have children who call school friends or neighbors? Do you make a number of calls to family and friends?
- Inform your household. Talk about the calling plans with other household members. Once you have selected a plan make sure everyone knows what the plan permits.

Common terms
